

CONDUCTING WORKSHOPS

with Michael Zaugg

Lady Cove Women's Choir is pleased to welcome esteemed conductor and choral pedagogue, Michael Zaugg, to St. John's! As part of his visit, Michael will be offering two public choral workshops.

Currently the Artistic & Managing Director of Pro Coro Canada, Swiss-native Michael Zaugg has distinguished himself as an innovative and versatile conductor and clinician, active across Canada and in Europe. A passionate pedagogue, Michael is strongly committed to his work not only with choirs but also with emerging artists.

Hand-Head-Heart Approach to Choral Art

Wednesday, October 20 | 7:30 pm
Suncor Energy Hall
Memorial University School of Music

A presentation about transferring the pedagogical approach of a Swiss educator into choral music. Learn about balancing Hand-Head-Heart as a choral leader for self-reflection, for individual music study and for leading an ensemble. How do you implement this HHH triangle with your choir? Let's discuss!

Running time: approximately 1 hour.

Honing the Craft: Conducting Workshop

Saturday, October 23 | 10:00 am
St. Mary's Church, Sanctuary
(enter via Cornwall Crescent entrance)

A workshop for choral pedagogues and choral leaders to discover, analyze and practice ways to work with gesture when rehearsing and performing choral music. This session is hands-on, and will provide opportunities for any skill-level to hone expression, pulsation and energy in gestures. No advanced preparation is required.

Running time: approximately 2 hours.

Workshops are open to the public and free of charge.
All are welcome!
